

The author of the song “The Mountains of Shusha”: khanende Khan Shushinski

Azerbaijani singer-khanende Khan Shushinski (real name Isfandiyar Aslan oglu Jevanshirov) was born on August 20, 1901 in the city of Shusha. However, in the book of 2007 by Azerbaijani publicist Mustafa Chemenli, “Khan of Shushinski”, the village of Ballyja of Shusha uyezd (now Khojaly district of Azerbaijan) is indicated as his place of birth. Khan Shushinski came from the clan of Karabakh khans – Jevanshirs.

Azerbaijani khanende Jabbar Karyaghdy oglu called Khan Shushinski “the best singer of the future”. Azerbaijani art critic Firudin Shushinski noted: “Khan has a juicy mellifluous voice with a wide range. According to the old-timers of Shusha, only Haji Husi (Azerbaijani khanende) possessed such a voice. One can safely say that after Jabbar Karyaghda and Seyid Shushinski, no one performed rhythmic mughams as skillfully as Khan Shushinski”.
